Applications
TheCubeTube   Live | GitHub
- Built a Youtube channel organization application that allowed users to browse subscribe, and categorize channels anonymously.
- Utilized MySQL to connect users with their channels, custom categories, and videos.
- Created queries to the database using PHP, allowing clients and the server to read, delete, insert, and update data into and from the database.
- Utilized Curl and cronjobs to get channel and video data from the Youtube API.
- Used Javascript to set up Ajax calls for front-end interactions with the database.

Pokemon-DDR   Live | GitHub
- Created a multiplayer Pokemon game where players have to press keys in a particular sequence to attack each other.
- Used Ajax to grab card data from the Pokemon Trading Card API while also utilizing the Youtube and Pokemon Database APIs to get stats and videos for the pokemon.
- Core game logic and functionality were built on Javascript and jQuery.
- Styling and animations were built with CSS3 and Bootstrap.

Carbot Memory Match   Live | GitHub
- Created a Carbot Animation themed memory match game where players have to pair up cards with a given number of attempts.
- Using Media Queries and Flexbox, the game is highly responsive with three distinct layouts based on screen orientation and size.
